Dear Mr. Kiriakou:

By a letter sent to you last week, the Area Security Officer of the Office of General Counsel informed you that the Central Intelligence Agency does not authorize authors to disclose the contents of manuscripts or the comments of the Publication Review Board about those manuscripts to their attorneys, whether or not they possess security clearances.

Please note, all substantive discussions regarding your proposed manuscript will be conducted by the Board with you directly during the course of the review process. The Board will not communicate with your counsel about the substance of the manuscript or the Board's comments on the manuscript.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,
